Enabling the 21st Century Learner - Resources and Tools
Know How? Can Do?

Combine text + images to create newsletters and activity sheets.	Use presentation software such as power-point to create slideshows.	Take photos and download camera.	Use quality interactive resources to support curriculum. Maths/English/Integrated	Create multi-media presentations and digital stories using software such as photo-story.	Use the data projector to support teaching and learning.
Search the web with increased efficiency making use of different search engines and resource libraries.	Make use of student-friendly 'general' reference sites.	Make use of web tools and resources to help keep children safe on the web.	Make use of digital tools to gather, analyse and use data.		Display ideas visually with digital maps, diagrams, posters and organisers.
Capture voice with an external microphone and import into programmes such as power-point.	Blog Basics: Create a classroom blog.	Better Blogs: Power your blog with page elements and by embedding third-party content.	Use wikis in your class to communicate, collaborate and create.	Make use of voice-thread to create purposeful opportunities for students to develop their oral language skills.	Participate in projects which involve collaborating with others from outside your classroom.
Connect with others from outside your classroom with video conferencing.	Shoot and download video footage.	Edit video footage with movie-making software.	Provide opportunities and the software for students to create digital art.	Extend thinking with rich internet based tasks such as web-quests.	Provide opportunities and tools for students to create games and learning objects.
Provide opportunities and tools for students to experience digital programming and animation.	Save your favourite websites, online with social bookmarking.	Use RSS technology to keep up-to-date with your favourite blogs and websites.	Using ICT to support each stage of a framework such as inquiry learning, SOLO or Blooms taxonomy.	What's Hot- Stay abreast with emerging technologies.	Identify key sites that focus on 21st century education with a focus on pedagogy to practice.